

Press Information Bureau Government Of India

Ministry of Finance
(16-June, 2015 09:38 IST )

Finance Minister Shri Arun Jaitley to Leave for Nine Day Visit to United States Tonight;

Will hold Various Meetings with Foreign Institutional Investors during his stay in USA;

Will Interact with the Management of New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and Select Top CEOs of US Financial Companies; Will give a talk on “One Year After:

Progress on Economic Reforms in India” at the Columbia School of Business;

To Address the International Day of Yoga Celebrations in San Francisco on 21st June, 2015 among others

The Union Finance Minister Shri Arun Jaitley will be leaving tonight for nine day visit to the United States of America (USA). In the first leg of his visit, the Finance Minister will arrive in New York tomorrow. Thereafter, he will hold luncheon Meeting with executives of top US Companies. The Meet is being organized by FICCI. The Finance Minister will give details regarding broad policy agenda for reviving India's growth while balancing inflation and what India expects from long term investors and strategists to support its growth agenda and how the Government is focused on making India an easier destination to do business. The Finance Minister will also give details regarding the role the foreign investors and companies can play in building-out India infrastructure in sectors like power, roads, highways and ports among others. Besides it, the Finance Minister Shri Jaitley will hold meetings with the management of New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and select top CEOs of US Financial companies. On June 18, 2015, the Finance Minister will also address the select gathering of portfolio managers from Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) as well as the executives of US companies operational in India, comprising banks, insurance and pension funds, infrastructure and manufacturing companies, defense firms and pharmaceutical corporations etc. The Finance Minister will also hold meeting with about 150 members of Council for Foreign Relations (CFR) and would highlight about likely prospects of Indian economy, investment opportunities in India and development of infrastructure among others. In the evening, the Finance Minister will hold meetings with USIBC AND FICCI executives and would discuss about reform measures put in place by the Government of India to make India a top investment destination. On the morning of 19th June, 2015, the Finance Minister will give a talk on “One Year After: Progress on Economic Reforms in India” at the Columbia School of Business. There he will brief the students, alumni and faculty of Columbia University how the Modi administration delivered on its promises- particularly its plan for economic growth.

In the afternoon on 19th June, 2015 the Finance Minister will leave for Washington D.C. In the evening, the Finance Minister will give a talk on “Putting India back on track: a pathway to digital growth” at American Enterprises Institute in Washington D.C.

During his stay in Washington DC, the Finance Minister will also will meet top CEOs/senior officials of US companies. He will also address a Press Conference with those representing Indian media in US and the US media. The Finance Minister will stay in the US capital for two days i.e., 19th and 20th June, 2015 and will leave for San Francisco on Sunday, 21st June, 2015.

In San Francisco, the Finance Minister will address the celebrations organized to mark the occasion of the International Day of Yoga on 21st June, 2015. Shri Jaitley will also address the participants on the issue of “India's Economic Future” at an event organized by Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research (SIEPR) during his stay in San Francisco. The Finance Minister will also interact with TiE leadership and hold discussions on “India: New Land of opportunity” He will hold meetings with the foreign investors during his three day stay in San Francisco. On the morning of 24th June, 2015, the Finance Minister will leave for back home and will reach the national capital on 25th June 2015. The Finance Secretary, Shri Rajiv Mehrishi will also join the Finance Minister during his visit to United States.

*****

DSM/KA

-

(Release ID :122556)

Share 0

Tweet

---

Site is designed and hosted by National Informatics Centre (NIC), Information is provided and updated by Press Information Bureau "A" - Wing, Shastri Bhawan, Dr. Rajendra Prasad Road, New Delhi - 110 001 Phone 23389338