ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
[GEN. (DR) V. K. SINGH (RETD)]

(a) India and Bangladesh have not entered into any agreement during the visit of Bangladesh President to India on December 18, 2014.

(b) The "Agreement between the Government of India and the Government of Bangladesh Concerning the Demarcation of the Land Boundary between India and Bangladesh and Related Matters" (LBA) was signed with Bangladesh in 1974 and the Protocol to the LBA was signed in September 2011. It settled the long outstanding land boundary issues related to undemarcated segment of 6.1 Kms; territories in adverse possession; and exchange of enclaves. The Constitution (119th Amendment) Bill for implementing the India-Bangladesh LBA signed in 1974 and the Protocol signed in 2011 was introduced in Rajya Sabha in December 2013. The Bill was examined by the Standing Committee on External Affairs which tabled its report in the Parliament on December 02, 2014.
